

Nidula emodensis

Cup: crucible or urn-shaped, 4-6 mm high x 4-6 mm wide

External buff-grey becoming darker, covered with closely appressed tomentum (felty)

Internal whitish- grey, smooth, shiny

Peridioles: more than 10, reddish-brown to black, 0.5-1 mm diam., rugulose

Spores: narrowly ellipsoid, or obovate or pyriform, 6-9 x 4-6  $\mu$ m (Cunningham 1924) (but Brodie's samples: 4-5 x 3-4  $\mu$ m)

Substrate: twigs, mulch, rope

Habitat:

Notes: No specimens in BRI